

Autumn in Aberdare

Serves 1

The colour of this glowing, coppery cocktail is reminiscent of the leaves turning and autumn sunsets. Serve before supper or Sunday lunch with toasted nuts.

60ml Penderyn Madeira Whisky
35ml red vermouth
2 dashes of Angostura bitters
½ tsp Amarena cherry juice
2 Amarena cherries for garnish

Add all ingredients, except the cherries to a cocktail shaker, then top with ice. Cover and shake vigorously for a minute until the mixture is ice cold. Strain into a tumbler filled with ice cubes, and garnish with cherries.
